INTRODUCTION

1. These bylaws (the “Bylaws”) are created by the Board of directors of GB Powerlifting Federation Limited (“British Powerlifting”) in accordance with their obligations and rights within British Powerlifting’s articles of association (the “Articles”) and in furtherance to the objects therein.
2. For avoidance of doubt, wherever the Bylaws conflict with the Articles, the provisions in the Articles will take precedence.
3. Unless the context requires otherwise, the definitions of the Articles shall apply to these Bylaws.
4. British Powerlifting is the trading name of GB Powerlifting Federation Ltd.
5. The following rules, policies and procedures shall be considered part of these By-Laws:
 - 5.1. Complaints and Disciplinary Policy and Procedure
 - 5.2. Anti-Doping Rules
 - 5.3. Code of Conduct for Officials
 - 5.4. Code of Conduct for Athletes
 - 5.5. Safeguarding Policy.
 - 5.6. Equality and Diversity Policy
 - 5.7. Data Protection Policy
 - 5.8. International Selection Procedure
 - 5.9. Branding Guidelines
 - 5.10. The constitution of the International Powerlifting Federation.

BRITISH POWERLIFTING EMBLEMS

6. The official emblems of British Powerlifting shall be shown in Appendix A (the “Emblems”). The British Powerlifting emblem shall be the emblem primarily used and is also shown in Appendix A.1.
7. The Emblems shall not be used without the Board’s prior written authorisation.
8. Only the Board (or such other individuals or committee’s as they may delegate this authority to from time to time) may authorise the fabrication of the Emblems, badges, medals, or any other material items of this nature.
9. British Powerlifting merchandise may only be produced and sold under the authority of the Board (or such other individuals or committee’s as they may delegate this authority to from time to time).

MEMBERS

10. This section of the Bylaws is made by the Board in accordance with Article 17 to 19 and their ability to set the membership level.
11. Please refer to the relevant sections of the Articles to confirm you have the right to join British Powerlifting.
12. The British Powerlifting has the following categories of membership available to those individuals that meet the requirements of the Articles and any conditions expressly outlined below. For avoidance of doubt, for the purpose of the Articles all of the below, with the exception of Temporary Members, are considered Members:
 - 12.1. "Individual Members" being those that have paid the required affiliation fee and been accepted into membership by British Powerlifting Board. The membership fees shall be as determined in accordance with the Articles.
 - 12.2. "Home Country" being the representative organisations of each of England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland. For the time being these are the English Powerlifting Association, the Welsh Powerlifting Association, Scottish Powerlifting and the Northern Ireland Powerlifting Federation.
 - 12.3. "Division" being the representative organisation of certain defined areas of the Home Countries and currently Greater London, South East England, South West England, Yorkshire & NE, North West England, North Midlands, South Midlands, East Midlands and West Midlands.
 - 12.4. "Temporary Members" being non British Powerlifting members who participate in British Powerlifting incentive schemes.
 - 12.5. "Late year Members" being:
 - 12.5.1.1. any Individual Member, that joins British Powerlifting in November or December shall be entitled to membership at the same rate as the Individual Membership for the whole of the following calendar year; and
 - 12.5.1.2. any Individual Member, that joins British Powerlifting between July 1st and October 31st shall be entitled to that year's membership at half the price of the Individual Membership for that calendar year, provided they pay for full membership for the following year at the same time.

13. All categories of Member shall be logged onto the central database by the Membership Registrar.

MEMBER RULES AND INDICATIVE PENALTIES

14. The following are a non-exhaustive list of Member rules that should be observed by Members at all times. For avoidance of doubt, these are at all times in addition to the rules or regulations within the Articles that relate to the Members and the general obligation of Members to promote the Objects of British Powerlifting. Contravention of any and all rules are to be referred to the Disciplinary Committee and dealt with in accordance with the Grievance Procedure, the Articles and the provisions herein.

15. The following actions of a Member may be subject to disciplinary action and may, subject to Bylaw 16 below, be referred to the Disciplinary Committee for consideration in accordance with their procedure:

15.1. violation of the rules of British Powerlifting;

15.2. disobedience towards any Appointed Official (as defined in By Law 17 below) in the execution of the Official's duties;

15.3. the use of words or gestures threatens a British Powerlifting event organiser, volunteer, loader, referee or any other Official in the execution of their duties;

15.4. the participation in an event (including competitions) with other IPF recognised countries without permission;

15.5. the bringing the sport into disrepute by means of his comments, published articles, TV or radio broadcasts or posts on social media; or

15.6. false accusations of dishonour or dishonesty against a Member or Official; or

15.7. contravening any of the provisions of the Articles or By-Laws; or

15.8. contravention of IPF, EPF, British Powerlifting anti-doping rules or any other anti-doping rules as British Powerlifting Board may decide shall apply to Members from time to time; or

15.9. bringing British Powerlifting, British Powerlifting or the sport of Powerlifting into disrepute; or

15.10. acting in a manner that is contrary to the best interests of British Powerlifting and British Powerlifting ; or

15.11. contravening any of the rules or regulations governing the accepted behaviour of Members of British Powerlifting; or 15.12. use of offensive language on any web-site discussion forum, e.g. Facebook or Twitter etc; or

15.13. failure to return British Powerlifting property when requested to do so by the Board; or

15.14. use, without written permission of the Board, or misuse/adaptation of the GBPF or British Powerlifting official emblems; or 15.15. any other matter as the Board may deem fit to refer.

16. In the case of all alleged in-Competition breaches of any and all rules, regulations or principles of British Powerlifting by a lifter, official or spectator, the competition's jury shall have three in-Competition courses of action at their disposal:

- 16.1. to remove the individual from the competition and refer them to the Disciplinary Committee who shall have sole discretion as to any further sanctions;
- 16.2. to allow the individual to continue their role within the competition and refer them to the Disciplinary Committee who shall have sole discretion as to any further sanctions; or
- 16.3. provided the competition jury either has the full facts and information, or in their opinion such further facts would not change which option under this Bylaw 16 they follow, to dismiss the alleged in competition breach with no further action against the individual.

For avoidance of doubt, it is a competition jury's duty to facilitate the compliant running of a competition, not to impose sanctions that stretch beyond that competition which is the duty of the Disciplinary Committee.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR OFFICIALS OF BRITISH POWERLIFTING

17. "Appointed Officials" include the Board Directors, Non-Board Directors, Non-Board Officers, Head Coaches, Members of Committees, Referees and any Member appointed to represent the Board of British Powerlifting.
18. All Appointed Officials of British Powerlifting are expected to abide by British Powerlifting officials' code of conduct which will be issued to them on appointment of the relevant role, or passing of the officials examination, and such other rules, policies and directions of British Powerlifting or the Board as may be in place from time to time.
19. Appointed Officials must not post anything on social media that could be considered inflammatory, of a bullying nature or likely to bring British Powerlifting into disrepute. The standard of what may constitute these actions may differ from Non-Appointed Official Members by virtue of the role the Appointed Official has accepted.
20. Any Appointed Official who does so may be referred to the Disciplinary Committee under the Grievance Procedure.

ANTI DOPING RULES

21. British Powerlifting fully accepts the World Anti-Doping Code issued by the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA). British Powerlifting is affiliated to the International Powerlifting Federation (IPF). The IPF follows the Olympic ideal and principles and supports and maintains the ideals and objectives of the Olympic movement. The IPF accepts and recognizes the Statutes and aims of the International Olympic Committee (IOC), the General Association of International Sports Federations (GAISF) and those of the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA).
22. The purpose of the World Anti-Doping Code and the World Anti-Doping Code which supports it is:

- 22.1. To protect the Athletes' fundamental right to participate in doping-free sport and thus promote health, fairness and equality for Athletes worldwide; and
- 22.2. To ensure harmonised, coordinated and effective anti-doping programmes at international and national level for the detection, deterrence and prevention of doping.
23. British Powerlifting's Anti-Doping Rules are those published on the website and are enforced either by UKAD or the IPF.
24. In general, British Powerlifting Anti-Doping Rules shall apply for all British Powerlifting championships:
- 24.1. The IPF or UKAD have sole responsibility for anti-doping at British Powerlifting championships.
- 24.2. In addition, any lifter who having been weighed-in leaves the venue without permission may be subject to disciplinary action. Permission may only be given by British Powerlifting DCO or senior official.
- 24.3. Interpretation and applicability of Anti-Doping rules within British Powerlifting shall be the responsibility of either the IPF or UKAD.
- 24.4. Any lifter, whose positive anti-doping test results in an IPF fine on British Powerlifting, shall not be eligible for membership of British Powerlifting until that lifter has served their suspension and reimbursed British Powerlifting the full amount of the fine.
- 24.5. Any fine incurred at a Commonwealth Championships shall be the responsibility of the Home Country concerned.
- 24.6. Any lifter found positive may apply for membership again after their suspension term has been served. However, the lifter must first have repaid the cost of the anti-doping test.

PROCEEDINGS AT THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

- 35. The Articles shall dictate all notice requirements of the Annual General Meeting.
- 36. The Annual General Meeting will observe the following procedural requirements:

36.1. No other business shall be discussed at the Annual General Meeting other than that on the Agenda;

36.2. The minutes of the previous meeting, having been circulated, shall be taken as read. No motion or discussion shall be permitted. The only exception to this rule will be in regard to the accuracy of the minutes. After confirming the accuracy of the minutes, the Chairman shall sign them, and the delegates at the AGM shall be at liberty to ask questions with regard to matters arising from the minutes. Such questions shall be permitted for purposes of information only and no debate on the policy outlined in the minutes shall take place. No correction or alteration to the minutes will be accepted unless written notification had been received and acknowledged by the General Secretary within four months of the date of circulation of the minutes to Members.

36.3. The Chairman shall decide the order of speakers.

36.4. The ruling of the Chairman on any question or on any point of order or explanation shall be final. If there is a difference of opinion on a point of substance, a vote shall be taken and a majority required to determine the ruling.

36.5. No Member shall speak for more than five minutes at any one time.

36.6. The first proposition on any particular subject shall be known as the original motion. All succeeding propositions in that subject shall be called amendments. Every motion or amendment must be proposed and seconded by Members actually present at the meet before they can be discussed. It is permissible for a Member to make a speech first and conclude with a motion. When an amendment is moved to an original motion, no further amendment can be discussed until the first amendment is disposed of. Notice of any further amendment must be given before the first amendment is put to the vote.

36.7. If an amendment is carried, it displaces the original motion and itself becomes the substantive motion; whereupon any further amendment relating to any portion of the substantive motion moved, provided that it is consistent with the business and not been covered by an amendment or motion which has been previously rejected. After the vote on each succeeding amendment has been taken, the surviving proposition shall be put to the vote as the main question. If carried, it shall then become a resolution of the meeting.

36.8. Except when the Chairman at his absolute discretion, authorises a vote to be by secret ballot the voting shall be by show of hands or coloured cards, if these are available. On particularly sensitive matters, such as a vote, which is concerned with Members, or prospective Members who are present at the meeting, such persons may be asked to leave the room before voting takes place.

36.9. At meetings, all matters of procedure which are not covered under these standing orders shall be decided by the Chairman of the meeting.

36.10. Anything said in British Powerlifting AGM, committees or subsequent documentation is without prejudice and may not be used in litigation.

36.11. A Member that has been the subject of non-Doping related suspension or penalty may, provided their motion is raised in accordance with both the Articles and the By-Laws, appeal to the Members to remove such a suspension or penalty. Such a vote requires two thirds of the Member vote to be validly passed.

36.12. A Member may put to the vote of the Members at an Annual General Meeting a motion to remove from their role any Member who, through neglect of duty or misconduct, has brought British Powerlifting into disrepute or in any way impaired its function or development. Such a vote requires two thirds of the Member vote to be validly passed.
