

Promoter Requirements for GBPF National Championships

1. General
 - a. A hard wired internet connection must be available for live streaming. Wi-Fi should be used as a last resort only.
 - b. Refreshments – tea, coffee, sandwiches etc should be available.
 - c. An electronic scoring system shall be used with the addition of a stop clock embedded in the score sheet.
 - d. All entries fees go to the GBPF, but any profit made is retained by the promoter.

2. Competition Area
 - a. Regulation size platform, IPF approved bar and Sufficient discs, bench with safety racks, chalk box, blocks for bench, means of cleaning the bar.
 - b. Sufficient floor protection must be provided around the platform.
 - c. The area at the back of the platform must be clear and GBPF and IPF banners/logos must be prominently displayed.
 - d. Three referees seats, table to accommodate MC, time keeper, scorer, computer operator.
 - e. Table and seats for jury, sited with a clear view of the platform and scoreboard. Preferably, a repeater scoreboard monitor should be provided.
 - f. Referees lights (preferably wireless), time clock, score board, speaker system (relayed to warm up room).

3. Warm up Area
 - a. Minimum of three platforms each with bar, discs, stands and bench.
 - b. Sufficient seating.
 - c. Warm up room controller.

4. Weigh-in room - Certified scales, table and seats for officials.

5. Equipment check area - Table and seats for officials.

6. Doping control room - Lockable room with table chairs close to toilet, sufficient sealed drinks.

7. Personnel to be provided by the promoter
 - a. Loaders minimum of five at all times (preferably two teams). They MUST all wear either GBPF or championships T-shirts. This is essential to present a professional image for live streaming and on-line video clips.
 - b. Promoter will appoint Speaker, scorer (for official scoresheet), computer operator, time keeper (preferably a referee).

8. Referees and all paperwork, trophies and certificates will be provided by the GBPF.

9. The promoter will provide details of local reasonably priced hotels and B&B's .