

Law and Legislation Chair Appointment

16th May 2024

British Powerlifting is delighted to announce the appointment of Josh Roberts into the role of Law and Legislation Committee Chair.

As an active Powerlifter Josh has been a member of the South West division of British Powerlifting since 2020, and has competed in various divisional competitions (managing to win a couple) as well as British Nationals, and is passionate about the sport. In his professional life Josh is a qualified solicitor, working for a major international law firm, and has specialised in contentious construction matters since 2011. Chairing the Law and Legislation Committee Josh will combine his professional life with powerlifting, bringing with him his experience for the benefit of the Federation.

Myself, the Board of directors and all our volunteers would like to extend a warm welcome to the team, and we look forward to working with you.
