

Independent Director Appointment

British Powerlifting are proud to announce the appointment of Martin Bass to the post of Independent Director (without portfolio).

A well known member of the Federation, Martin has dedicated his life to making a difference in our Sport.

Martin's development over the years of one of the world's most renowned institutions Bethnal Green Weightlifting Club, is testament to his dedication for our sport. This along with his position as head coach of our Masters Classic team makes Martin the perfect addition to our growing board of Directors.

We welcome Martin to the board of Directors, with his wealth of experience, and look forward to his guidance and assistance moving forward.

James Brincat-Smith,

CEO

British Powerlifting.